

Emergency Medical Responder (EMR) Examination Application Instructions August 19, 2021

Note: This process only applies to Emergency Medical Responder (EMR) examinations for those who plan to practice in Alberta, Saskatchewan or Manitoba. All candidates for the Primary Care Paramedic (PCP) and Advanced Care Paramedic (ACP) examinations must continue to follow the application process through the provincial regulator as outlined on the COPR website.

- 1) Submit an Examination Application.
 - Click Apply for EMR Examination.
 - Log into the portal or click on New User to create an account.
 - Select “Examination Application” and complete the application form.
 - If applicable, apply for Testing Accommodations as part of the Examination Application:
 - The Disability Information form must be completed by a qualified, regulated health care professional who has assessed and treated you in the past year.
 - Upload the completed form to the Examination Application.
 - If the EMR training program is complete, upload a transcript or certificate that clearly states EMR program requirements have been met.
 - If training is incomplete, an application can still be submitted.
 - Complete Examination fee payment ($550 +tax) via credit card and submit application.
 - You will receive a confirmation email.
 - Examination Application & Testing Accommodation request deadline: 4pm CST, June 30, 2021.

- 2) Schedule the time of the Examination virtual proctoring session.
 - COPR’s examination provider, Yardstick Assessment Strategies (YAS), will send candidates an email with instructions approximately five weeks prior to the exam date. You must access the YAS web portal to complete this step to complete the EMR Examination booking. Monitor your junk/spam folder as the email may automatically be sorted by your email provider to your junk mail.
 - Examination booking window opens July 14, 2021 and closes July 21, 2021.
 - You will receive a confirmation email after booking your examination start time.

- 3) Ensure proof of training program completion submitted.
 - If not submitted with the Examination application, documentation of successful program completion must be uploaded to the COPR Applicant Portal before the deadline of August 4, 2021. Failing to upload sufficient evidence by the deadline will result in your examination application being cancelled. The refund policy will apply.
 - You will receive a confirmation email after documentation has been approved.

- 4) Before Examination Day, review the COPR Examination Handbook and note the virtual proctoring requirements. It is mandatory that you use the Test It Out function in the Yardstick Assessment Strategies portal to ensure your computer and internet connection meets all requirements. This video shows what to expect during a virtually proctored Examination.

Documentation requirements for training program completion:

A certificate, transcript or letter from the educational institution that clearly states the EMR program has been completed.

A transcript that lists courses but does not state the EMR program is complete will not be accepted.

- To upload proof of training program completion, log into the applicant portal and select the option to upload a document.
- To cancel an application, log into the applicant portal and select cancel. COPR staff are notified of your cancelation. The refund policy will apply.
