

COPR Entry to Practice Examination Eligibility Exception Letter

This form is required when seeking an exception to the eligibility requirements as outlined on the COPR website. Examples: It has been more than one year since completing the educational program, you have completed a remedial education program after three unsuccessful attempts, or you are required to attempt the COPR examination by a provincial regulator.

Section A: To be completed by the examination candidate:

Name: _____

COPR Examination level (EMR, PCP, ACP):

I intend to practice as an EMR, PCP or ACP in the province of:

I am seeking an exception to the eligibility requirements based on:

- It has been more than one (1) year since completing an educational program
- I have completed remedial education after three unsuccessful examination attempts
- I am required to complete the COPR examination by a provincial regulator
(Example: license reinstatement)
- Other: _____

Contact the appropriate provincial paramedic regulator to have this form completed.

Section B: To be completed by the provincial regulator and returned to the candidate:

The above candidate is approved to write the COPR examination for the practice level identified above. The candidate has applied to write the examination in

Provincial Regulator:

Date:

Staff Name:

Signature

Instructions to Examination Candidate: upload this letter with the confirmation of educational program completion to the COPR application. Deadline: 14 days prior to date of examination. Retain a copy of this document for your records and future use.